This year also, like past years, the management and students of this school organized a jubilant function in the school with full zeal and fervour on 14th of 2007.

On the day children reached school as early as 8'O Clock. They were clad in clourful dresses with glittering caps and swirling little flags in their hands.

A day before, they under the guidance of the teachers had decorated school with Independence Day banners and paper flags.

The day was celebrated with Quiz competition and speeches by the students about independence of Pakistan.
